Play Ball This Afternoon.

The Brownies and Manchester Colts line up this afternoon at the Brond Bireet Park for the second context in the Twin City League's second.

Manchester team will probably introduce their new pitcher, Elliott, who will, in turn, introduce the famous "spit" ball to the Richmond cranks.

The manager of the Colts was notified yesterday that Barley Kain, the fast infelder, had decided to remain in the city this season, and would play at infield for Manchester. He will not play in to-day's game, but will be on hand on Saturday when the team will meet the Annexers, of Barton Heighis. The rain cheeks given out on Saturday will be good for the game to-day, which will be called at 4 o'clock, with Umpire Bender as loss of the game.

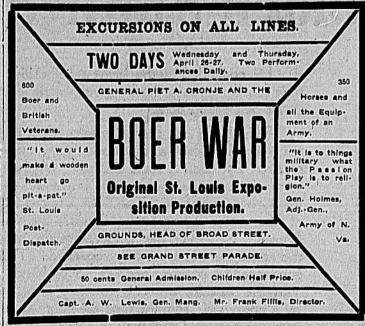

Ward and Wright Win. (By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 18.—Holcomb Ward and Benis C. Wright, the national doubles lawn

A Pretty Game Was Played Between Davidson and Virginia.

HOME TEAM THE WINNER

Pollard Allowed But Two Hits in the Nine Innings.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 18. Davidson College dropped the final game on its Northern trip, Virginia winning out in the dinth inning by a score of 4 on Lambeth Field since the Pennsylvania game, it being a pitcher's battle between Pollard and Vall. The former had the better of the argument, however, allowing but two hits. He gave only one pass to first and retired eleven of the North Carolinians on strikes. Vail pitched an exceedingly elever game for the visitors, and with his underhand delivery kept the best betters on the Virginia team guessing.

Dayldson started the scoring in the Davidson started the scoring second inning. Fetzer, the foot-ball cap-tain, drove one between center and left, good for three sacks, and tailied on Vail's good for three sacks, and tallied on Vall's out, short to first.

In her half of the second Virginia sent two runners across the plate. Council was safe because Thompson dropped his third strike. Fetzer, falled to handle Danlel's grounder. Both Springer and Stuckey walked, forcing in Council. Rowe hit to third base, and Danlel was thrown out at the home plate. Cracraft hit to Morrison, who fumbled the hall long enough for Springer to tally.
Davidson took the lead in the fifth. With the bases full, Shortstop Thompson hit to Pollard, who made a bad throw to the home plate, the ball bounding out of Council's glove, and both Vall and Moore crossing the plate.

There was no more scoring until the Moore crossing the plate.

There was no more scoring until the tenth. Pollard started off with a single over first base, stole second and came home on Mason's grounder, which Fetzer fumbled, tying the score. Mason advanced to third on White's out. Council then drove the first ball pitched him over the centerfielder's head, Mason scoring the winning run. The ball rolled across the running track and would have been good for a home run.

good for a home run.

White played a sharp fielding game at first, and Council's backstop work was almost faultiess. Shortstop Thompson and First Baseman Balley made spectacular catches for Davidson, the former pulling down a high fly after a long run, and the latter capturing Mason's hot liner, after juggling it.

CURES MALARIA. A SOLDIER'S EXPERIENCE

HE following letter is indisputable evidence that "Elixir Babek" really cures malaria—cures it anywhere in the world—and cures it after physicians fail. Call and see this letter and others if you are interested.

February 7, 1002.

To the Manufacturers of "ELIXIR BABEK":

Gentlemen: In the summer of 1800 I contracted the disease known as malaria. After a year's fruitless treatment by a prominent Washington physician I was entirely cured by your PLIXIR BABEK. Upon my arrival in this country I was again stricken with malaria, but this time in a worse form—the tropical malaria. Bemembering the merits of your remedy, I immediately sent for some. Again it proved to me that for malaria it was far superior to any physician's treatment.

Elixir Babek in this country is worth its weight in gold.

Respectfully yours.

Santa Catalina Came in Second, But Proved Disappointment to Admirers.

BENNINGTON FOR TWO RACES

Gallant Lasts Long Enough to Beat Black Prince by Half Length.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 18.—Preen, winner of three races at Bennings, finished first in the Arverne stake at a Aqueduct today. For a few moments, it was a matter of doubt as to whether he would be permitted to retain the stake. His rider, Creamer, cut across from an outside position, and in doing so, caused more or less interference to both Czaraphine and Santa Catalins.

If the stewards had allowed a claim many were ready to charge them with inconsistency for not disqualifying Kehalian from second place in the second event, won by many lengths by Crown Prince. Kehadian swerved over from the center as they neared the last furiong pole, threw high wind against Waswift, and undoubtedly interfered with both press.

is they mented that has variety operations which wind against Waswift, and undoubtedly interfered with both horses. The rider of Highwind claimed a foul. No cognizance was paid to the matter.

Preen's Arverne's victory netted his owner, the Goughacre stable, $1,670. Santa Catalina disappointed her admirers by not running on straight and true. She werved more than once from the whip.

Gallant a Winner.

Gallant a Winner.

William Lakeland was borne first past the post in the sixth race on Gallant. He made all the running. At half the distsnce it seemed that Goldsmith would be a dangerous factor, for he gradually reduced the lead held by Gallant. At six furlongs, it was a close thing between the two, but Goldsmith began to falter the two, but Goldsmith began to faiter and a new aspirant loomed up in Black Prince, a much improved colt. Under a particularly vigorous whip, Black Prince apidly overhauled Gallant, who, however, lasted long enough to win by hair, a length. Gold Coin won the first race by a neck from Phyllis A. Onell was forced to do his best to get Gold Coin home in front. Dr. Coffer, who ran just outside the money, acted as if he would improve.

Asre's agent made another bid. Burlew stopped, and then M. L. Hayman took a hand, the coft being knocked down to him for $3,000.

Between Orly II, and Uncle Urigh a rousing good finish ensued in the third race, and while Orly II. won, it, was accounted for by the difference between Hildebrand and Perrine, the latter having the mount on Uncle Urigh.

Newton Behnington won his second race of the day when Merrick scrambled home in the race for two-year-olds, ridden hy jockeys who had never ridden a winner.

BOSTON, MASS, April 13.—Among the entries for the early closing stakes of the Readville Grand Circuit meeting in August, anounced to-day, is that of J. C. Smith, Richmond, Va. He has nominated the bay gelding Phylam, Toodles in the Blues Hills, $5.-00 class for 2:30 trotters against about 35 others from all parts of the country. The Readville entry list this year for the early closins is the largest in the listory of the track and it will be the banner meeting of the Grand Circuit.

MISSED SWANSON.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA.. April 18.—The absence of Mr. Swanson yesterday on account of sickness was a great disappointment to his friends in this county, many having assembled here to hear him.

Governor Montague's speech has been very much complimented. I heard more than one man say that they liked the way he talked. The Governor left early this morning for Lawrenceville, where he will speak to-day, and at Norfolk to-night.

The Governor also has a good memory, like Mr. Swanson, who reminded a gentleman here of a promise he made four years ago to support him for the effice of Governor at the next election, if he (Mr. Swanson) would wait, and now Mr. Montague reminds the proprietor of the Exchange Hotel here, where he stopped yesterday, of the good batterbread he had eaten when he was here four years ago, and inquired if the same good bread was now made at the hotel.
